

Equipment and Asset Policy

The company provides a laptop and necessary peripherals to all full-time employees upon joining. Employees are responsible for the safekeeping of company-issued equipment and must report any damage or loss to IT immediately. Equipment must be returned in working condition upon resignation or termination. Requests for additional equipment, such as external monitors or ergonomic accessories, require manager approval and are subject to budget availability.