

Training and Development Policy

The company is committed to supporting employee growth through continuous learning. Employees are eligible for up to 20,000 rupees per year toward external courses, certifications, or conferences relevant to their role, subject to manager approval. Internal training sessions are conducted quarterly and attendance is mandatory for all team members. Employees completing certifications relevant to their function may be eligible for a one-time skill bonus, reviewed during appraisal cycles.